What is an MBA?

MBA is a formal program in Management / Business Administration; these three letters have shaped millions of success stories around the world. It is an education based on insights into the fundamental concept of management and how to relate them to the broader international scenario. It will indicate to your prospective employer that you have the skills required to be successful in any business. An MBA program offers specialisation in Marketing, Finance, Human Resources, Systems & Operations.

Why MBA?

- It will shape your career
Career opportunities post a graduation degree in Commerce, Arts, Engineering, etc are limited. Post an MBA, one can look out for lucrative profiles in Investment Banking, Marketing, Brand Management, HR management, Supply Chain Management, Systems, etc. to name a few.
- It is financially rewarding
In comparison to jobs that you get after graduation, an MBA degree leads to better paid jobs and a more secure future. If one does an MBA from a reputed institute, then the financial returns will be even higher.
- It aims to develop future CEOs & Businessmen
An MBA degree prepares you for leadership roles in your career. A recent survey by a major newspaper has found that 50% of CEOs in the world have an MBA degree.

Who should do an MBA?

Graduates from almost every conceivable background viz arts, science, commerce, mass media, management, engineering, medical sciences - can pursue an MBA degree. People with work experience can also apply for the MBA course.

B-School Selection Process.

Most B-Schools have a 2 stage selection process

- Aptitude Test – is generally the first stage of the B-School selection process CMAT, NMAT, SNAP, MAT, ATMA, TISS etc. are some prominent aptitude tests. Students are short listed for GD-WAT-PI based on their scores in the aptitude test and in certain tests, GD/PI forms a component of the overall score.
- GD-WAT-PI Group Tasks – is generally the second stage of the selection process. A student needs to do well in all or some of these activities if he wishes to get a high overall score which translates into a final call from the institute of his choice.

Understanding CET

MH-CET or MAH-MBA/MMS-CET as officially called is the state level entrance test for admission to MBA / MMS programs affiliated to Maharashtra university. The test followed by the admission process is conducted by the Directorate of Technical Education (DTE). CET is the gateway to esteemed Top college like JBIMS, SIMSREE and PUMBA. Many private colleges in Maharashtra also accept CET scores for their PGDM programs. JBIMS, SIMSREE and Welingkar is such notable Examples. Admission to 85% seats in MMS / MBA colleges in MH is done through the CET and is reserved for Maharashtra students. The remaining 15% seats are All India seats to which a student can also apply to with his CAT, CMAT, XAT, MAT, ATMA or GMAT scores.

Eligibility Criteria

Graduate with a minimum 50% marks in aggregate or equivalent CGPA from a recognized university. The percentage requirement is relaxed to 45% in case of candidates of backward class categories and persons with disability belonging to Maharashtra State only.

Test Structure

The Test consists of 200 Multiple choice questions that assess different areas.

The below table gives the topic wise breakup of question for CET 2019:

Sr.No.	Topics No. of Questions	No. of Questions	Mark Per Question	Maximum Marks
1	Logical Reasoning	75	1	75
2	Abstract Reasoning	25	1	25
3	Quantitative Aptitude	50	1	50
4	Verbal Ability/ Reading Comprehension	50	1	50
	Total	200		200

Mode: CET is a computer based test (CBT)

Duration: 150 minutes (2 ½ hrs).

Marking scheme: There is no negative marking for incorrect answers. Therefore, it is imperative that the students attempt all the questions and intelligently guess the answers to unsolved questions. Every correct answer fetches 1 mark. Incorrect or non-attempted question fetch zero marks. Therefore, the test is out of 200.

Admission Process

Since 2014, the admissions have been on the basis of CET scores for MH seats and other test scores for All India seats. GD-PI is not being conducted by DTE for CAP. Students should prepare for GD – PI if they are applying to PGDM programs using their CET score.

CET Achievers

I have been a classroom student at IMS since 2018. This was my second attempt at CET and having scored 99+ percentile in the first attempt without much preparation, hopes were high on this one. I started by taking mocks in the last week of February, focused on analyzing them and just working on my strategy with the help of my mentors. I had taken CAT 2019 and so, it was more about adjusting the approach as it is a time-based test. When I attempted the actual CET, I found it to be very similar to the IMS mocks. Finally, I would like to thank all my mentors at IMS for their constant support throughout this journey as it wouldn't have been possible without their guidance.

Jay Maru (CET 2020 - 99.99%ile)

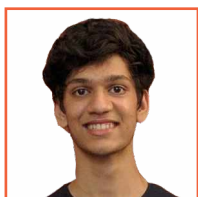

Having decided to get my dream score this year, I found the IMS test series and the expert faculty readily at my aid during my preparation. The varying difficulty levels of the tests got us prepared for the worst and made sure I could handle my calm during the exam, which was the most significant factor in scoring well.

Jigar Parekh (CET 2020 - 99.99%ile)

It was truly a great experience joining IMS for the SIMCET test series. The mocks were designed well and being slightly on the tougher side, one had to be really careful at question selection to optimize the score. This in turn helped me on the final day of the exam where careful question selection in each section became important due to the slightly lengthy pattern of the exam. For any exam, analysis of mocks is crucial and IMS made this really easy by providing useful metrics such as 'average time taken by students' and 'accuracy of students' which were very useful to compare and evaluate oneself. A special mention for Dnyanesh Sir at the Vashi centre for always being helpful and cordial.

Ankit Thakker (CET 2020 - 99.99%ile)

Looking back, I can't help but appreciate how IMS has helped me in so many ways; academically and psychologically. The faculty is always ready to solve each and every doubt, and more importantly, they are constantly there to show you the path and put you back on track when you doubt yourself. The SimCETs were challenging while maintaining the essence of MAH-CET, which is good speed with high accuracy. Had I not attempted these mocks, I do not think I would be anywhere close to how prepared I was on D-Day. IMS has been instrumental in helping me recognise my potential and work towards my goal, and I am very thankful for all their help.

Anay Dave (CET 2020 - 99.99%ile)

My decision of purchasing SimCET advanced program turned out to be way more productive than I had thought. The difficulty level of mocks was accurately set, and the challenges faced in each mock prepared me for the actual battle. The level of sophistication in the analysis part made the improvement even easier. I reckon SimCETs to be one of the major driving forces in my success..

Siddhivinayak Shende (CET 2019 - 99.99%ile)

This was my first serious attempt at CET. I had enrolled for the SimCET Plus Program. What makes the SimCET unique from the other test series is the varying level of difficulty and that adds the element of surprise as you'd never know the magical score you need to score 99.99 and that helps you to give your 100% and prepares you for the worst. The mocks were designed in such a way that the series covered almost every topic in every section. The analysis part was equally good as it helped me learn new shortcuts and time-saving tricks. The IMS SimCET series played a crucial role in my journey to the Promised Land. Thank you IMS!
